

S&E SPECIALTY POLYMERS ANNOUNCES THE SIGNING OF MILLAN & ASSOCIATES, LLC AS A DISTRIBUTOR OF S&E'S CUSTOM COMPOUNDS IN LATIN & SOUTH AMERICA

Lunenburg, MA, USA (August 1, 2011)... S&E Specialty Polymers of Lunenburg, MA, announced today the signing of a distribution agreement with Millan & Associates, LLC, d/b/a Millan High Performance Materials & Equipment. Millan & Associates will distribute S&E Specialty Polymers' custom compounds in Latin & South America.

"We are pleased to have the opportunity to partner with Millan & Associates," said Jay Munsey, S&E's National Sales Manager. "Esteban Millan, President/CEO of Millan & Associates, has a solid understanding of the markets and opportunities in the Latin & South American regions. His long term relationships will serve as an excellent opportunity to showcase S&E's diverse product line. We feel this will benefit S&E and Millan & Associates."

Millan & Associates' President/CEO, Esteban Millan, shares Munsey's excitement about the new relationship. "We are very excited about growing with S&E by promoting and selling their world class quality materials," says Millan. "S&E's diverse product offerings within the different markets and their demonstrated responsiveness give us an invaluable strategic leading edge. We at Millan & Associates know through S&E we can offer our customers a quality 'off the shelf' compound or a quickly developed compound to meet the customer's requirements. We are looking forward to our partnership."

S&E Specialty Polymers is a premier specialty plastic compounder serving the automotive, wire and cable, battery/stored energy, medical and footwear markets. The company's products are also used extensively in general purpose molding and extrusion applications. S&E produces PVC, TPE, TPU, TPO & TPR compounds including flame retardant polyolefin, flame retardant/low smoke PVC Plenum and low smoke zero halogen compounds. The company is a leading producer of flame retardant concentrates and compounds requiring exact color matching.

In addition, S&E enjoys ISO 9001:2008 and ISO 17025:2005 (lab only, per scope as listed in web site below) accreditation. The company has a state-of-the-art laboratory equipped with the best available machinery for providing the most comprehensive testing results to its customers.

Millan & Associates LLC, was formed in 2009 in Naples, Florida USA (about 125 miles west of Miami), to explore the recent opportunities created by various trade agreements between the United States and its South American neighboring countries. Millan & Associates is a talented and experienced group of Marketing, Logistics, Engineering and Financial executives and enterprises, already working on behalf of U.S. and Latin & South American manufacturers and distributors, helping establish relationships between suppliers and buyers.
